

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

WOMAN'S DEATH SUSPICIOUS.

Found by Brother in Cabin With Skull Crushed.

Staunton, Va., June 5.—What appears to have been a murder was discovered Tuesday in a cabin near Parnassus, in Augusta county.

Charles Donaghe, an old man, who resided there with an aged maiden sister, Miss Rebecca Donaghe, went home from Parnassus at about 3 p. m., and found his sister lying in a pool of blood on the floor of her room, with her head crushed in. Dr. S. H. Burton was summoned and he concluded after examination that Miss Donaghe had been dead about two hours.

The coroner and Commonwealth's attorney held an inquest, but no clue could be discovered.

Two blows had been struck with some kind of a blunt instrument, one on the forehead and one on the back of the head, either of which would have proved fatal.

Donaghe left home about 7 o'clock in the morning and stated that he spent the day in and about Parnassus.

FOUR YEARS IN PENITENTIARY.

William C. Cooper Found Guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter.

Danville, Va., June 4.—William C. Cooper, was yesterday afternoon adjudged guilty of voluntary manslaughter by a jury in the Corporation Court, after being out one hour and forty minutes, and sentenced to serve four years in the penitentiary.

No appeal was taken after delivery of the verdict.

Cooper killed J. B. Brooks on July 6, in the American Tobacco Company's stable in a drunken brawl. He is a well connected youth in the city.

Will Exhume Body.

Heathsville, Va., June 5.—Special dispatch from King George county states that it is probable that the body of Walter Carter, of Richmond county, who was killed in a dramatic performance at Oak Grove, on May 20, will be exhumed or examination. The suspicious circumstances surrounding the supposed accidental killing have come to light since the body was interred and some action may be taken by the authorities.

Pay Expenses of Veterans.

Williamsburg, Va., June 4.—The James City County Board of Supervisors, at its meeting Monday, passed a resolution empowering the clerk T. H. Geddy, to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for funds sufficient to pay the expenses of all Confederate veterans of James City who desire to attend the Gettysburg reunion next month.

CAPT. QUINBY FACES TRIAL.

Norfolk, Va., June 5.—A naval court of inquiry convened here yesterday to investigate charges of intoxication made against Captain John G. Quinby, commanding the receiving ship Franklin, by Rear-Admiral Doyle, commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard. Taking of testimony will begin tomorrow.

MUST UNDERGO OPERATION.

Colonel John S. Harwood to be Treated by the Mayo Brothers.

Richmond, June 5.—John S. Harwood, former member of the House of Delegates from Richmond and now candidate for the State Senate, will leave Richmond on Saturday for Rochester, Minn., to undergo an operation at the hands of the Mayo Brothers, the abdominal surgeons. Colonel Harwood has been in bad health for some months, suffering from recurrent attacks of internal trouble, which it is believed will not be relieved until there has been a radical operation removing the seat of the trouble.

Colonel Harwood is without opposition for the seat in the state Senate from Richmond, made vacant when Senator E. C. Folkes resigned to take his seat on the Administrative Board of Richmond, and will be nominated in the primary of June 12 during his absence from the city.

VEILED PROPHETS.

Phetaphs Will Meet in Richmond Next Year.

Richmond, June 5.—This city will get the 1914 meeting of the Mystic Order, Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, which will bring about 2,000 visitors. The gathering was held at Springfield, Mass., this year, and W. T. Dabney, of the Chamber of Commerce, accompanied the Samis Grotto delegation to that mecca for a purpose. The purpose was land the convention, and it was accomplished, notwithstanding that Buffalo, N. Y., has been virtually promised the 1914 meeting when Springfield was given the choice last year, and it made a strong fight against Richmond.

NEWSPAPER WAR ENDS.

Rockingham Daily Record and Harrisonburg News Merged.

Harrisonburg, Va., June 5.—Former Senator George B. Keezell, chief owner of the Rockingham Daily Record, and Robert B. Smythe, chief owner of the Harrisonburg Daily News, have issued statements announcing that on today the papers will be consolidated under the name of the Daily News-Record. Alexander Forward, recently of the Times-Dispatch, of Richmond, comes here as editor of the consolidated journals.

This ends the long political newspaper war that has waged for several years in Rockingham, and which has probably been without a parallel in Virginia.

Death of Thomas Barnes.

Suffolk, Va., June 5.—Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, aged 62 years, died here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after an illness of several weeks. Dr. Barnes was especially prominent in political circles of the state. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention in Richmond in 1901. At the time of his death he was chairman of the board of visitors of the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, and also chairman of the same board at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.

KILLED BY ENGINE.

Joseph Pearman Run Down by Shifting Engine.

Richmond, June 5.—Joseph Pearman, fifty-nine years old, was fatally hurt Tuesday afternoon when he was run over by a shifting engine in the Second Street yards of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. One leg was completely cut off above the knee, the second so badly mangled that it was later amputated. He died on the operating table at the City Hospital at 5:20 o'clock.

Pearman, it was said, was crossing the yards at a time when a freight train was passing. To avoid the train he stepped behind a car and directly in front of the engine, which was engaged in making up a train. He was thrown under the wheels and crushed. Aside from losing his leg he was badly cut and bruised about the head and face.

RAILWAY SURGEONS.

R. J. Noble, of Selma, N. C., Elected President.

Old Point, Va., June 5.—The Association of Surgeons of the Southern Railway closed its eighteenth annual convention yesterday afternoon. Officers were elected as follows:

President, R. J. Noble, Salem, N. C.; first vice-president, J. P. Wathers, New Auburn, Ind.; second vice-president, W. P. Horton, North Wilkesboro, N. C.; third vice-president, G. B. Thornton, Memphis, Tenn.; fourth vice-president, E. P. McCallum, Greensboro, Ala.; secretary-treasurer, J. U. Ray, Woodstock, Ala. A. R. Shanks, of Washington, D. C., was elected a member of the executive committee to serve five years.

NEGRO RESPITED.

Owen Goggin, of Richmond Gets Stay of Sentence.

Richmond, June 5.—Owen Goggin, a young negro, who was sentenced to die in the electric chair Friday of his week, has been granted a respite by Governor Mann until June 27 in order that the executive may consider the application for commutation.

Goggin was convicted of the charge of attempting to attack Mrs. Ras Nance, of Bedford county. He was tried and convicted April 10, the sentence being pronounced by Judge W. E. Staples. He was brought to the death chamber here a few days ago after being held for some time in the Lynchburg jail. He was taken to Lynchburg for safekeeping, it being feared that he would be attacked in Bedford City.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, held at the court house of said city on Monday, May 12, 1913. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge. Isaac L. Greiner, Complainant.

Anna F. Knobler Greiner, Defendant. An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that she cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this court, the Court ordered that a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is not a resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years an order of publication having been duly granted in open Court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, William T. Powell, at 739 Fairmont street, North West, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

At Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Tuesday, April 29th, 1913. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge. Alma E. Powell, In Chancery.

William T. Powell.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 29th day of April, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant on the ground of desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years before the bringing of this suit, the care and custody of the infant child of the marriage, and for general relief, and an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, William T. Powell, is not a resident of the said State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, William T. Powell, at 739 Fairmont street, North West, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.
